Re: • Ganymede Solar, LLC v. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Incorporated
 • Docket 2019-390-E
 • Response to Your Email of 2:02 p.m., today

Ms. Hill:

The undersigned is counsel of record for Ganymede Solar, LLC, (“Ganymede”). This correspondence is in response to your email referenced hereinabove.

First, I e-filed a response to you today, concerning the Utility’s request for an extension of time to file Testimony. As stated in my e-filed response, the Utility’s request is a request for the later of a five day extension from the current filing date of February 19, 2019, for the Utility’s filing of Direct Testimony, or five days after this Commission’s Hearing and decision on the pending discovery dispute. Also, as stated, because it appears impossible for this Commission to schedule and conduct a Hearing and issue an Order before the above referenced filing date, the Utility is really requesting an extension until five days after this Commission’s future Hearing and ruling. Accordingly, if you are inclined to grant the Utility’s request for an indefinite extension, my client would also request an indefinite extension. Finally, we do not oppose your ruling on the Utility’s Motion for a five-day extension, prior to the ten-day timeframe.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me, and this correspondence is,

Respectfully Submitted,

/S/Richard L. Whitt
